

Crows Feet "Cutters" at the Tin Pan Theatre

Friday June 28th

6:00pm- 11:00pm

$7.00 (limited space)

Bend...we know that their are a bunch of pro bike racers who live here, train here and live the dream of riding a bike for a living. But have you ever thought about completely changing your nationality in order to pursue your dreams? Taking on an Italian accent, creating your own team and living to ride your bike?

Join Crows Feet Commons in creating our own "Cutter's" team. We will host a screen printing party. You buy a shirt, you print the shirt yourself and then pony up on your favorite bike for an urban bike shred exploring some of the funnest back alleys of Bend and beyond. The remains of the ride will end at the Tin Pan Theatre for a showing of "Breaking Away". The Grammy award winning movie with a knock-out performance by Dennis Quaid and Daniel Stern.

"We rednecks are few.. college paleface students are many. I counsel peace."

Where: 6:00pm - Crow's Feet Commons: 875 NW Brooks St

9:00pm - Tin Pan Theatre: 869 NW Tin Pan Alley.

Why: To celebrate the summer riding season, introducing the live feed of the Tour de France at Crows Feet Commons and to have a good ol' time!

Special Note: Tin Pan Theatre is limited to 42 seats, so if you want to make it into the movie get to Crows Feet Commons early!
